

Do you have a family law case involving a child?

How will the child be heard?

We can help!

The BC Hear the Child Society is a non-profit society formed in late 2009 to support opportunities for children to share their views and be heard when their best interests are being determined in family justice decision-making.

A Hear the Child report is a direct record of the child's stated views or desire. It is non-evaluative. It is neither an expert report, an expert opinion nor an assessment; and thus differs from s. 211 reports.

BC Hear the Child Society Roster members do not replace assessors or therapeutic professionals. Rather, they provide a basic service to support every child's right to have an opportunity to be heard.

Hear the Child reports may be ordered under s. 202(b) of the Family Law Act, or under s. 224(1)(b), as a specified service. If a Hear the Child report has already been prepared, it can be admitted to the court under s. 202(a) of the Act.

One of the original goals of the Society was to establish a roster of neutral child interviewers trained to listen to children and assist families and decision-makers. Our Roster members conduct non-evaluative child interviews and prepare Hear the Child reports for consideration when a child's best interests are being determined in family justice proceedings.

Child Interviewer Roster - Victoria

How can you hear the child's views?

Kathleen Bellamano	(250) 213-7898
Trudi Brown, QC	(250) 595-2220
Crystal I. Buchan	(250) 388-7571
Joan Cotie	(250) 213-1812
Julie Donati	(250) 388-7571
Patricia Lane	(250) 598-3992
Fiona McQueen	(250) 385-1122
Kay Melbye	(250) 595-2220
Mary E. Mouat, QC	(250) 380-1566
Bobbi Poushinsky	(250) 652-6607
Eugene Raponi, QC	(250) 385-4311
Téh Stratton	(250) 590-4114
Suzanne Williams	(250) 595 2220

These neutral professional interviewers listen to children in family law cases so the child's views are heard by adults making decisions about the child's best interests.

For more information, please contact a child interviewer or visit www.hearthechild.ca for full provincial listings.

