

BC PARENTING
COORDINATORS
ROSTER SOCIETY

Advanced Training

with Dr. Matthew J. Sullivan, Ph.D.

Working in the Trenches with High Conflict Co-parents

The BC Parenting Coordinators Roster Society invites you to participate in the following two-day advanced training. Participants may attend one day or both days.

When: September 15 & 16, 2022

Where: UBC Robson Square, Vancouver, BC

Times: 9:00 am to 4:30 pm each day

Day 1: September 15, 2022: Interviewing Children – how to best elicit and incorporate Children’s views in the PC process, mediation process, or litigation process

Day 2: September 16, 2022: Parent Child Contact Issues – advanced training on how to understand and intervene with this challenging post-separation dynamic Matthew J. Sullivan, Ph.D. has been in private practice, specializing in Family Dispute Resolution and clinical work in the Family Courts for over 30 years. He is the author of numerous peer-reviewed articles, book chapters and co-authored two books on topics related to work in high conflict shared custody situations. He is a pioneer in the development of the Parenting Coordination role internationally and regularly presents at conferences and trains family justice professionals about Parent-Child Contact problems in high conflict shared parenting arrangements.

Dr. Sullivan was President of the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts (AFCC), an interdisciplinary and international association of professionals dedicated to the resolution of family conflict, from 2019-20. He served on the American Psychological Association Ethics Committee from 2016-18. He is the co-founder of Overcoming Barriers, Inc., which is a non-profit organization that has developed a variety of innovative programs for high conflict shared custody arrangements.

In 2012, Dr. Sullivan received the Joseph Drown award for outstanding service to children from the California chapter of the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts.
